The mistake that a lot of people make when recovering from a breakout is attempting to dry out the skin but once the wound has closed it is important to keep it moisturised in order to promote healing and prevent scarring and further breakouts caused by overproduction of oil.

If shorts and bare legs aren't for you then change things up a bit with an A-line skirt or some tights in colder weather.

that have remained at the front of our wardrobes over the last few months.
